Notes

- A W or Q may be substituted for the same numbered course.
- Cross-listed courses may only be counted once.
- All POLS 2998/W and 2995 courses apply to the major and may count towards the subdivision requirement. The subdivisions assigned to these courses can be found on the Department of Political Science website.
- POLS 3995 courses may be counted towards part one only with the consent of the advisor.
- POLS 3991, 3993, 3999, 4994, and 4997W may not be counted towards part one.
- Interdepartmental (INTD and UNIV) courses may not be included in the 24 credits.
- No more than six credits of independent study, colloquium (POLS 4894), and/or field work (of which no more than three credits may be for POLS 3991) can be counted toward the 24 credits.

RELATED COURSES

At least 12 credits in courses related to Political Science taken from one or more other departments. These courses must be numbered 2000 or higher and cannot be taken on a pass-fail basis. All 2000-level (or higher) courses in Anthropology, Economics, Geography, History, Human Rights, Philosophy, Public Policy and Sociology will meet this requirement. Any course within these departments that is cross-listed with POLS will count towards the major and not as a related. Certain other courses have been approved and are listed on the Department of Political Science's website. Courses not in the departments listed above or included on the pre-approved list may be approved as related courses at the discretion of the advisor. List courses below:
